

DRAW YOUR OWN PICTOGRAPH STORY

ESSENTIAL OUTCOME: I CAN...draw a probable Native American story using pictographs.

Directions: Tell a probable Native American story by using the following pictographs. You must use at least 15 different pictographs. You may use the same one more than once. Remember—you don't need conjunctions such as and, etc. Draw your story on the back side of this paper. No color is necessary. On the bottom of the back side, write complete sentences telling what your pictograph story means.

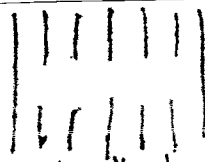

sun

tribe

teepee

on tenth day

the earth

graves

shelter

let us stop or walk

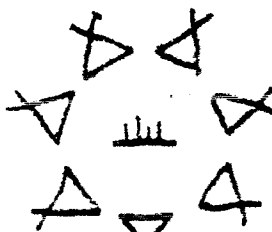

the sky

daytime

paleface

camp

deer tracks

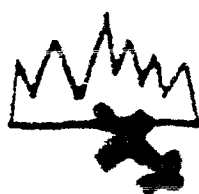

nighttime

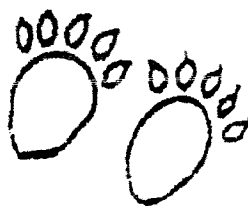

sunset

look

campfire

bear tracks

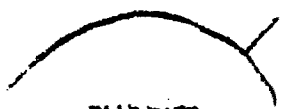

noon

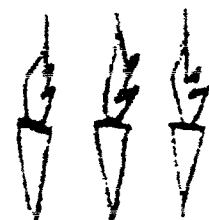

friendship

food

sunrise

smoke signals

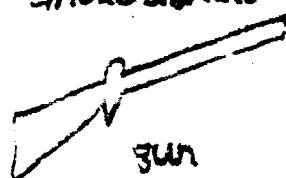

rain and cloudy weather

bad news

creek

gun